Since winning the 2008 if.comedy Best Newcomer Award for her debut solo show Sarah Millican's Not Nice at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Sarah is fast on her way to becoming a household name. A consummate live performer, she has notched up a number of appearances on top comedy shows including Mock the Week, Have I Got News For You, 8 Out of 10 Cats, Live at the Apollo, The Bubble and Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow which she will be returning to as a headliner on the new series, going out this autumn. In addition, Sarah can be heard as a regular guest on the Radio 5 Live series 7 Day Sunday and has recently had a second series of her self-penned Sarah Millican's Support Group commissioned for Radio 4.

After two critically acclaimed, sell out Edinburgh Fringe runs in 2008/9, Sarah will return to Edinburgh in August this year with a brand new show before embarking on her first national tour, entitled Chatterbox. On top of all this Sarah has recently completed her second run at the annual Melbourne Comedy Festival, where she received a nomination for the prestigious Barry Award in 2009.
